ON SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 10, 2024, the Canadian Foundation for Physically Disabled

Persons will celebrate its 40th annual Great Valentine Gala, a cherished Toronto tradition of celebration and support for Canadians who live with disability.

"It's going to be a very special night," promises Gala founder and CFPDP chair the Honourable Vim Kochhar. "The Great Valentine Gala is where it all began for our Foundation, and on February 10th, we'll be marking 40 years of extraordinary partnership and progress in the service of a great cause. I think that's cause for celebration."

Over the course of four decades, the CFPDP and its premier fundraiser have raised more than $35 million dollars on behalf of Canadians with disabilities and the issues and vital services they espouse. These funds have supported many important, life-changing initiatives that otherwise would not have been possible.

Here is a short list of projects that have benefited from the generosity of Great Valentine Gala supporters:

Canadian Helen Keller Centre (CHKC), which operates the world's first truly barrier-free housing complex for people who are deafblind. CHKC provides crucial intervenor services to facilitate independence. Programming and training in essential life skills are offered through CHKC via Canada's first training facility for the deafblind community.
